Pacific Air Services Inc.

(Formation of Contract)

Article 1. Upon acceptance of the contents of the application form and the following terms and conditions, the person applying for the course (hereinafter referred to as "the Student") shall apply to the drone school (hereinafter referred to as "the School") operated by Pacific Air Service Corporation to teach the operation of unmanned aerial vehicles (hereinafter referred to as "drones"). ("Pacific Air"), and the School will accept the application. 2.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, if any of the following conditions apply, a contract shall be concluded subject to the fulfillment of each condition.

- (1) For courses that have course conditions, the student must fulfill such conditions.
- (2) Other conditions stipulated in the course information, etc. are met.

(Reasons for Refusal)

Article 2. The school reserves the right to refuse an application for any of the following reasons

- (1) When a student does not fulfill the requirements listed in each item of the preceding article, or when it is found that the student does not fulfill the requirements listed in each item of the preceding article.
- (2) When the course participant is a minor.
- (3) When it is objectively impossible to provide services, such as when there is no room in the capacity of the course that the course participant wishes to take.
- (4) When the Participant is a crime syndicate, a member of a crime syndicate, a person related to a crime syndicate, a general meeting house, or any other anti-social force (hereinafter referred to as "anti-social force"), or has a relationship with anti-social forces.
- (5) When a person commits any of the following acts by himself/herself or by using a third party
 - (a) Violent acts of demand
 - (b) Unreasonable demands beyond legal responsibility
 - (c) Acts of threatening words or deeds, or using violence
 - (d) Acts of spreading false rumors, using deception or force to damage the other party's credibility, or obstructing the other party's business
 - (e) Other acts similar to the preceding item.
- (6) When a course application is made under a false name or another person's name.
- (7) When the School deems that the student cannot be expected to operate the drone properly due to intoxication, etc.
- (8) When a student fails to pay the course fee and other expenses as specified in the following article by the deadline specified by the school.
- (9) When the School deems it impossible to expect the Participant to comply with the Civil Aeronautics Law, Radio Law, Civil Code, and other laws and regulations concerning drones, as well as various safety guidelines established by public agencies.

(10) The Participant violates any of these Terms and Conditions.

(Fees and Other Expenses)

Article 3. Students shall pay the course fees according to the fee schedule stipulated by our school for the courses designated by our school by 5 business days after application.

2. Students shall be responsible for consumption tax, bank transfer fee, and other expenses related to the application fee and course fees as stipulated in the preceding two clauses. 3.

3. Students shall be responsible for any expenses (actual expenses for transportation and accommodation) incurred in connection with the course.

(Holidays and Hours of Operation)

Article 4. The school's holidays and hours of operation shall be as separately determined by the school. The School reserves the right to change these days and hours of operation at its discretion.

(Cancellation for Students' Convenience)

Article 5. Even if a student cancels a course after the course has started, the School shall not refund any course fee. However, in the case of cancellation before the start of a course, the following cancellation fees will be deducted from the course fee.

(1) Within 7 days before the start of the course: 30% of the cancellation fee (excluding tax)

(2) 3 days before the start of the course: 50% of the cancellation fee (tax not included)

(3) 2 days before the course start date: 50% of the cancellation fee (tax not included)

(4) One day before the course start date: 70% of the cancellation fee (tax not included)

(5) After the course start date: No refund will be made.

2. If a student cancels a course after it has started, the student may transfer the unattended course to another course (hereinafter referred to as "make-up course") as long as the course is scheduled within 5 weeks of the cancellation date following Article 4 of the School's regulations. Students may request to take a course that they have not yet taken (hereinafter referred to as "make-up course") as long as the course is held within 5 weeks of the cancellation date scheduled by the School under Article 4. If a student wishes to take a make-up course, he/she must apply to the School for a make-up course on the date of cancellation.

3. Students shall bear all fees related to the payment of course fees and other expenses as stipulated in these Terms and Conditions, as well as fees for refunds of course fees from the School to students. However, this shall not apply if a student is unable to use the curriculum due to reasons attributable to the School.

(Cancellation by the School)

Article 6. Even after the opening of our school, if a student is found to have any of the reasons listed in Article 2, and despite requests for improvement, the school may suspend the services or cancel the contract. In such cases, the School may suspend the provision of services or cancel the contract. In such cases, the course fees during the period of suspension or cancellation of the contract shall not be refunded.
